Gayan Samrat Late USTAD AZMAT HUSSAIN KHAN
“DILRANG” was one of the senior most and outstanding musicians of our country. He was a great musicologist, poet as well as an excellent composer. His departure from the scene of Indian music marks the end of an era which had produced some of the greatest exponents of ‘KHAYAL GAYAKI’.

Ustad Azmat Hussain Khan was a rarity among his contemporaries, as he made the art of singing a memorable experience for music lovers. He was a unique amalgam of a vocalist, patriotic songs. He also gave a vocal concert in the first independence anniversary of India in 1948 invited by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

Khan Sahab belonged to the very prestigious families of musicians of the Khurja Gharana. Atrauli (Jaipur) Gharana, Agra Gharana and Tanras Khan Delhi Gharana. He served the nation with his art till he breathed last. He adopted the State of Maharashtra as his home like his illustrious predecessors.

DILRANG ACADEMY OF MUSIC AND FINE ARTS is formed to promote, encourage and develop the art of Classical Music, and to organize Kavi Sammelans, Mushairas, Seminars, Discussions and Debate on Music and Fine Arts, as well as to render financial, medical and educational help to the needy and deserving artists.

It is obvious that the Academy will have to rely heavily on the munificence of the citizens of Mumbai, the music lovers, admirers and the disciples of Ustad Azmat Hussain Khan "Dilrang".

We expect an overwhelming co-operation and response from you.

With regards,
For Dilrang Academy of Music and Fine Arts,

Vajahat Hussain Khan,
Secretary
